

Presuming Competence: Fostering High Expectations

Hosted by PA ELKS Home Service

Thurs., Oct. 18, 2018
5:30 PM - 7:30 PM

LOCATION:

Beacon Light Recovery Center
1885 Market Street
Warren, PA 15365

Families will learn about the principles of presuming competence -- empower students, families, and communities to believe that all children can reach their maximum potential.

Training Objectives:

- Define "Presuming Competence" within the home, school, and community
- Describe approaches to build a path of high expectations at home, in school with peers, and with community members
- Identify how presuming competence can broaden opportunities in all settings

This training is for families and professionals.

The Parent Partnership was formed to raise awareness among Pennsylvania families and to create a unified statewide network that leads change by raising expectations for all students so they have access to the general education curriculum and PA Standards. Through the collaborative efforts of PEAL, HUNE, PaTTAN, and OSEP the Parent Partnership continues to support the efforts of FAMILIES TO THE MAX: Pennsylvania Statewide Parent Network.
